HANS KÜNG

Global Ethics and the World's Religions

Monday, November 17 / 8:00 p.m. / Free
UCSB Campbell Hall

Internationally renowned theologian, author, and Catholic priest Hans Küng is President of the Global Ethic Foundation. From 1960 until his retirement in 1996, he was Professor of Ecumenical Theology and Director of the Institute for Ecumenical Research at the University of Tübingen, Germany. From 1962 to 1965, he served as an official theological consultant at the Second Vatican Council. In 1979 the Vatican withdrew his license to teach Catholic theology because of his opposition to the doctrine of papal infallibility. Since that time Küng has focused his efforts on promoting dialogue between the world's religions and between religion and science, efforts that have been praised by the current pope.

His many publications include Why I Am Still a Christian; Global Responsibility: In Search of a New World Ethic; Judaism: Between Yesterday and Tomorrow; Christianity and World Religions: Paths of Dialogue With Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism; Islam: Past, Present and Future; My Struggle for Freedom: Memoirs I; and Disputed Truth: Memoirs II. Courtesy of Borders, copies of books by Hans Küng will be available for purchase and signing at this event.

Presented by the Virgil Cordano OFM Endowment in Catholic Studies in the Department of Religious Studies, UCSB and cosponsored by the Walter H. Capps Center for the Study of Ethics, Religion, and Public Life, Orfalea Center for Global and International Studies, Interdisciplinary Humanities Center Catholic Studies Research Focus Group. This event was made possible, in part, through the generous support of Gary and Mary Becker.
